Avalanche of Oratory in Every State in the Union Marks End of the Presidential Campaign.

TAFT MANAGERS ARE CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

Heronian Efforts Are Made in Nation and to Get Out Weather Promised.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The special election day weather let in was better today than yesterday's forecast.

"On Tuesday, indications are that the weather will be dry and fair in the West and in the south, the plains states and far southwest, in western Texas, western Colorado, western Idaho there will be rain or drizzle, but it is also possible for Washington, Oregon, and eastern northern California."

"Progressives will be gathered for the session in Sacramento all parts of the country on Tuesday."

New York, Nov. 4.—The vote cast for president at tomorrow's election throughout the United States will exceed all previous records, if today's predictions are fulfilled. Reports from all states indicate intense partisanship, as the election draws near; an unusually noisy campaign leaders to "get out the vote" and developments in the intra-party battles of the presidential contests will make a determination to "get out the vote" to the polls.

Colonel Roosevelt, in a statement from Oyster Bay today, made the disclosure that the New York Republican leaders are urging voters to support Wilson to make the defeat of Roosevelt certain. This statement was met with general denial from the Republican state leaders.

From Governor Wilson and from his New York headquarters came further admissions to Democratic leaders to get the voters to the polls, so that the maximum Democratic vote would be secured.

The extent to which the Socialist party, with Eugene V. Debs as its candidate, will cut into the vote of Taft, Roosevelt and Wilson has become a matter of lively conjecture in the committee headquarters of the latter candidates. The Progressive leaders assert that the Socialists will poll a heavy vote, drawing largely from the Republican and Democratic ranks.

In the majority of the states the polls will open between 7 and 8 o'clock tomorrow morning. Full reports will not be available from any sections until after 8 o'clock (Eastern time) in the afternoon and comprehensive returns from any state or congressional districts will probably not be had before 9 or 10 o'clock.

The progressive leaders have prepared to raise money from state and local leaders in all elections of the country.
